How can we gather thousands of great teachers to joyously shelter students worldwide!

Online Educational Fundraising Event.

1. The ICAC cordially invites those who are inspired to teach Cantonese or Traditional Chinese to join our online pro bono teaching. People without teaching experience are also welcome as training will be provided. Please submit your application by 00:00 Eastern Time on July 11th, 2022 to teach@icacnpo.com.

Teacher application form:

2. The Institute invites those who are interested in learning Cantonese or Traditional Chinese to attend online classes for free. Regardless of nationality, language, age, religion, region, participants can be children or adults as long as one can communicate in English, Cantonese or Mandarin in class. The scope of learning ranges from elementary level of pronunciation, lazy tone correction, daily conversation to appreciation of poems, songs and Cantonese opera.

When an application form is received, the Institute will match student to teacher. The schedule is four classes in Phase 1 held in July – August. Syllabus, materials and teachers will be assigned by the Institute. No alternative arrangement will be entertained. Classes will be scheduled to meet student's need to the best ability. If a student misses a class, no makeup class will be scheduled.

This is also a fundraising event for ICAC. Every student (or their parents) is required to raise USD 100 from their sponsors to participate in the event. Each donation of a sponsor should be no less than USD 10. Student or parent/guardian should ensure to complete the following items before the deadline:

(1) Submit your application to teach@icacnpo.com by 00:00 Eastern Time on July 11th, 2022.
